NUMB. 48.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, DECEMBER 21, to Saturday, DECEMBER 28. 1734.

By Capt. Pick, who arrived here on Sunday laſt in 9 Weeks from London, we have the following freſh Advices.

Turin, September 22.

'WE learn'd the Day before Yeſterday, by an Expreſs, that on the 14th at Night, the Enemy having aſſembled their Army, had paſſed the Secchia at Day-break, in three Columns, one of Huſſars and the other two of Horſe and Grenadiers. The French, not expecting that the Germans would come to attack them, neglected the Banks of the River, and ſuffered themſelves to be ſurprized, ſo that the Enemy were in the Quarters of the Brigade of Dauphine, before they were perceived, and put the Marſhal Broglio's Camp in the utmoſt Confuſion, who had himſelf but juſt Time to eſcape in his Shirt, and all the Equipage was abandoned to the Enemy. However, in a little Time, the Infantry rallied in an advantagious Poſt behind their Camp, having alſo a Canal before them.

'On the 15th at Night a Council was held, in which the Marſhal Broglio, like a loſing Gameſter, was for laying all to Stake; but the other Generals were of more moderate Sentiments; they oppoſed the Marſhal in his Heat, and ſo it was reſolved to retire to Guaſtalla, in which Retreat they were followed by the Enemy, without Intermiſſion, as far as Porteſto; but that Poſt being well furniſhed with Grenadiers, who vigorouſly defended it, they were purſued no further that Night. Matters would not have gone ſo bad, had our Horſe favour'd the Infantry as they ought to have done; but they were obliged to march expoſed on the Banks of the Po, in Preſence of the Enemy at Noon-Day: But we ſhould have loſt, notwithſtanding, but 150 Men, if our Lieutenant Generals had not forgot the firſt Battalion of Guards, and another of Savoy, who, without doubt, are made Priſoners, as well as a Detachment of 500 Men, and the Companies of Rhebender and de la Marine, which were at Quiſtello, none of whom we have had any Account.

Turin, September 23. 'The Count de Rogue, who was diſpatched by the King of Sardinia to the Queen, arrived here with the agreeable News, that on the 18th we had utterly defeated the Germans. The Particulars are not yet made publick; but what we learn in general is as follows:

'After the Action of the 15th, the Enemy drawing near, we expected to be attacked the 17th, and therefore our Troops were drawn up in Battalia; but the Enemy not appearing, we remained all Night under Arms. Our Precautions proved not unneceſſary, for the next Morning the Germans advanced towards us, and attacked us in good Order. The Battle begun at 10 o' Clock, and about 4 in the Afternoon the Enemy began to loſe Ground, and by 6 they were routed. It is reckoned that 7 or 8000 of them are left upon the Place, with their Cannon and Equipage. The Remainder of the Army is retired to Luzara; tho' the Cuiraſſiers and Dragoons of our Army are in Purſuit of them. 'Tis ſaid, the Prince of Wirtemburg is dead, and Lieutenant General d'Affry on our Side. During the whole Action our King run thro' all Ranks, encouraging the Soldiers with continual Preſence of Mind, and they in return made joyful Acclamations of Vive le Roy, We are ready to ſacrifice the laſt Drop of our Blood for your Majeſty, and the Common Cauſe.

Paris Sept. 25. 'It ſeems our Army upon the Secchia has lull'd themſelves in ſuch a fancy'd Security, that at length they paid a little dearly for it; the Marſhal de Broglio was diſturb'd in his Bed, and as ſoon as he awak'd, he found it high Time to ſeek a new Lodging, the Enemy being in his Court-Yard, for the Brigade of Dauphin which cover'd the General's Quarters were almoſt cut to Pieces. The General's Breeches were taken, and all the reſt of his Cloaths, and in ſhort all the Equipage and Baggage belonging to the Body of Troops he commanded. However, the Groſs of the Army retir'd in good Order to Guaſtalla without any extraordinary Loſs except what's above mentioned, and a Colonel of Horſe taken Priſoner. They talk much of a Reparation of Honour, and that they will bring the Germans to a deciſive Battle in order to regain the Breeches, for in the Main it has been no extraordinary Affair, except the Affront done to a Marſhal of France.

Paris, September 28.

Here follows an Extract of the News the Court has received of a compleat Battle gain'd in Italy the 18*th of September* 1734.

'The Combat laſted from 10 in the Morning till 5 at Night. Standards, Kettle Drums, Colours, and Cannon taken. Five of the Emperor's Generals killed; of whom, the Prince of Wirtemburg, they ſay, is one. The Field of Battle was covered with dead Bodies for two or three Leagues, ſo that they could hardly ſet their Feet on the Ground. Our Troops are in Purſuit of the Enemy; and there is Room to believe that their Buſineſs will be done once for all.

'We have loſt a great many Men. The Emperor's Cuiraſſiers were not able to ſtand before our Horſe; and our Carabineers diſtinguiſhed themſelves both on Foot & on Horſeback. Meſſ. de Bonas, de Stvines, and de Maillebois, are after the Enemy. The Marſhals of France write, that Troops could not perform better on both Sides; as well did the Generals behave; and the King of Sardinia diſtinguiſh'd himſelf very particularly. The Enemy attacked us in our Camp under Guaſtalla.

The following are what we know of the Killed and Wounded.

LIEUTENANT GENERALS.

D'Affry, killed.
Chaſtillon, ſhot thro' the Calf of his Leg.
D'Harcourt, ſhot in the Arm.
De Lovigny, Leg ſhatter'd.
Peze, two Shot thro' his Arm, and one thro' his Body.

MAJOR GENERALS.

De Laignon, wounded.
Moulier, ſlightly wounded.

BRIGADIERS.

D'Averay, his Knee ſhatter'd.
Mongon, killed.
De la Chatte, ſhot thro' the Body.

Col-

COLLONELS.

D'Inigny, killed.
Teſſe, little Bone of his Leg broke.
D'Armentiere, ſhot in the Neck.
Mongon, killed.
Souvre, ſlightly wounded.
Boiſleaux, ſlightly wounded,
Villemure, ſhot in the Thigh.
De Guerchy, wounded.
Souvre, four Shot of a Fuſil.

M. de Bleſſal, Lieutenant Collonel of Picardy, was killed, and his two Sons, one a Capt. and the other a Lieutenant in the ſame Regiment.

De la Motte, Commandant of the Carabineers, and M. Parabert, both wounded.

Milan, Sept. 26. All is in the utmoſt Conſternation here, upon Advice of a 3d Action about Guaſtalla, wherein the Allies were totally defeated, and Guaſtalla ſurrendered to the Germans, tho' ſome were taken by Storm: That 10000 Germans had paſſed on the other Side the Oglio, and 'tis ſaid Pizighitone has been taken by Surpriſe; but this laſt is doubted; but what is moſt certain, is, that the German Army has again entered the Parmaſan: The Allies have broke down all the Bridges over the Adda, near Lody, and are throwing up Intrenchments along that River; but 'twas apprehended that the Germans would give them no Time to ſtrengthen themſelves.

LONDON, Sept. 25.

In a private Letter from Paris, dated the 29th Inſt. N.S. it is remarked, that on the 19th, being Sunday, the German Army came with uncommon Valour to attack the Allies in their Intrenchments at Guaſtalla. At 10 in the Forenoon the whole Armies were engaged, Sword in Hand. The Fight laſted till 5 in the Afternoon, when the Germans retired, without being purſued, to Luzara, and left behind them ſome Pieces of Cannon, and a few Colours and Standards. That 15000 were killed on both Sides, among 'em 800 Officers. That Marſhal de Coigny was wounded, and M. d'Harcourt loſt one Arm. 'Tis agreed on all Hands that the Allies were much ſuperiour in Number, notwithſtanding which, putting the two Actions together, the Loſs on both Sides was ſuppoſed to be equal.

Sept. 27. Yeſterday both Houſes of Parliament met at Weſtminſter, purſuant to their laſt Prorogation, and were (by Virtue of his Majeſty's Writ directed to the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and to the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes) further Prorogued to Thurſday the 14th of November next.

Oct. 1. Yeſterday an Expreſs arrived at Court, by which we have an Account of a Victory gained by the Imperialiſts over the French in Italy, at the Caſtle of Guaſtalla, wherein the Allies ſuſtain'd the following Loſſes, viz.

25	Pair of Kettle Drums
30000	Weight of Powder
40000	Weight of Lead
50000	Match
365	Wax Flambeaux
10000	Bombs

500	Large Savillat Sauſages
	The King of Sardinia's Tent, valued at 10000 Rixdollars
2050	Horſes
3000	Muls
	The King's Cheſt, with 7 Millions of Rixdollars
55	Mortars
600	Shovels and Pickaxes
1000	Hand Granades
500	Aums of Wine
5000	Weight of Silver Plate
1000	Oxen
500	Milch Cows
100000	Weight of Nails
50	Barrels of Flints
300	Packs of Accoutrements
400	Firelocks
	The King of Sardinia's Watch ſet with Jewels
	The Chancery
300	Bales of Paper.
	A Liſt of 50 Spies kept in the King's Salary
6	Months Proviſion for 10000 Men
3000	Officers taken, and
15000	Common Soldiers
18000	Slain.

(By another Veſſel arrived in this Port in 5 Weeks 5 Days from Topſham, we have the following News from the publick Prints.)

Oct. 12. The Prince of Wales, Capt. Dunbar, of 300 Tuns and 10 Guns, is appointed to carry the Indian Chiefs to Georgia, and will ſail next Week.

Oct. 22. The Apprehenſions at Vienna of a Rupture with the Turks ſeem to increaſe, ſince Men were labouring hard on the Fortifications of Temeſwar, Belgrade, and Carlſtad, in Croatia, one of which Places the Turks threaten to attack. However, this is ſuppos'd to depend on the Situation of Affairs in Perſia, in regard to the making Peace; without which they will not be able to put their Deſigns in Execution.

We have an Account from Holderneſs in Yorkſhire, of the following remarkable Inſcription on a Tombſton newly ſet up in the Church-yard of Heydon, viz.

'Here lyeth the Body of William Strutton, of Padrin-
'ton, buried the 18th of May, 1734, aged 97, who had
'by his firſt Wife 28 Children, and by a ſecond Wife 17,
'own Father to 45, Grand-father to 86, Great-Grand-
'father to 97, and Great-Great-Grand-father to 23; in all
'251.

Oct. 31. The Indian Chiefs imbarked Yeſterday at Graveſend, and ſailed with the Saltzburghers, and divers Engliſh Families, for the Savannah in Georgia.

The poor Captives from Barbary landed at Portſmouth laſt Tueſday from on board the Blandford Man of War, 140 in Number, who are on the Road to paſs through this City in Proceſſion to St. Paul's Cathedral, to return Thanks to God for their Deliverance, and afterwards to go to St. James's to thank His Majeſty for their Redemption.

A Report had been current of a Duel between the Prince of Orange and the Prince of Baden on the Rhine; but, upon proper Enquiry, it appears to be groundleſs.

Nov. 2. Upon the late Exchanging of Priſoners with the Enemy, a Company of Piedmonteſe Grenadiers, taken at the Surprize upon the Marſhal Broglio's Quarters, refus'd to be exchang'd, and choſe to enter into the Emperor's Service.

The Prince of Orange arrived at the Hague the 7th Inſt. N. S. in good Health, and the Princeſs, his Conſort, paſſed through the City this morning, to imbark for Holland.

The French, picqued with Reſentment at their Diſappointment of poſſeſſing Worms, by which they muſt be obliged to quarter 18000 Men more in their own Country, are all in motion from all Sides with the greateſt part of their Forces, 16000 whereof have paſſed the Rhine at Philipsburg, and threaten to diſlodge the Germans from Heidelberg and Worms; near which laſt Place they are getting ready a Train of Artillery with Deſign to beſiege it.

The Duke of Wirtemberg, upon this Advice, is reaſſembling his Army, and has laid the Country about Worms under Water to prevent the Enemy's approaching it, ſo that a new Campaign ſeems to be broke open on that Side, and a bloody Action unavoidable.

LONDON, Nov. 5.

ACcording to Accounts from Hanover, of the 30th paſt by a Flanders Mail, the Negotiations for Peace ſtill ſubſiſt; no leſs than 10 Couriers, as they ſay, having paſſed by there in 6 Days, going to ſeveral Courts of Europe, to communicate a Plan drawn up by ſome Neutral Powers, each of which is obliged to furniſh a certain Number of Troops for next Campaign in Caſe the ſaid Plan does not take place: and they talk alſo of a numerous Army of Obſervation being to be formed on the Rhine next Spring, a conſiderable Squadron ſent to the Baltick, and a formidable Fleet to the Mediterranean, in order to reſtore the Peace of Europe by Force of Arms, if it can't be procured by Mediation.

Stolen or ſtray'd out of Charleſtown

A mouſe Colour'd Horſe about 13 hands and half high with 4 white Feet, a white forehead, branded on the mounting ſhoulder TW in one Letter. Whoever brings the ſaid Horſe to WILLIAM ROPER in Charleſtown, ſhall be well rewarded. AND WHEREAS the ſaid William Roper intends to depart this Province ſome time in February next, theſe are to deſire all perſons indebted to him, to pay their reſpective Debts on or before the firſt of the ſaid Month without further notice.

In order to prevent great Inconveniencies and Charge to all thoſe that have purchaſed Lotts in George Town Winyaw, by taking ſeparate Renunciations of Dower from the Wife of ELISHA SCREVEN, Proprietor of the ſaid Town, it is agreed and appointed by the ſaid Eliſha Screven, on the 2d Tueſday in January next, at the Houſe of THOMAS BOLLAM in George Town aforeſaid, to inveſt the Townſhip of George Town aforeſaid in the hands of Truſtees, in order that his Wife might make a general Renunciation of Right of Dower or Thirds to the Truſtees, which Renunciation will ſufficiently indemnify every Purchaſer, that takes Titles from the Truſtees, from the Dower or Thirds of the Wife of the ſaid Eliſha Screven.

Theſe are therefore to give notice to all ſuch as have purchaſed Lotts in George Town aforeſaid, and are deſirous of taking Titles from the Truſtees aforeſaid, that they reconvey their reſpective Lotts, unto the ſaid Eliſha Screven on or before the 2d Munday in January next, in order to enable them to take other Titles for the ſaid Lotts from the ſaid Truſtees, after the Executing of the Deeds of Truſt as aforeſaid, as they are not to expect ſeparate Renunciation of Dower.

And as it may be inconvenient for many perſons to be preſent at the Time aforeſaid, to reconvey their Lotts, if they will apply to Meſſrs. DANIEL and THOMAS LAROCHE in George Town, or Mr. ISAAC CHARDON in Charleſtown, they may be furniſhed with printed Reconveyances proper for that Purpoſe, which they muſt take Care to execute at any time before the Executing of the Deeds of Truſt, and leave them with a Power of Attorney to their Friends to accept of a Reconveyance and Livery and Seizin from the Truſtees for ſelling Town Lotts, in George Town.

And whereas many Perſons have made Choice of Lotts in the Town aforeſaid, for which they have no Titles, Notice is hereby given, that they may attend on Thursday the 23d of February next, at the Place aforeſaid, and take Titles for the ſame, otherwiſe they will forfeit their Claim.

N. B. The Deeds, Titles &c. aforeſaid having coſt a conſiderable Sum of money, it is expected that in order to defray the ſaid Charge every Purchaſer pay 40 s. at receiving their Title.

Whereas a beginning of Printing the

Laws of South-Carolina is actually made, and whereas there is yet but a ſmall Number of Subſcribers to the ſame, which will make the few Copies the Printer intends to print for himſelf ſo much dearer; This is to give notice to all Perſons who are deſirous to have the ſaid Laws upon the Conditions publiſhed in Gazette Numb. 24. ſeqq. that Subſcriptions will be taken in at the Printing Office till the 11th of January next and no longer.

Such Gentlemen as are willing to ſubſcribe for the ſaid Laws printed upon large Paper, are to pay 3 l. more above the price of the common paper, at the delivery of the whole.

By the PRINTER. hereof may be had
